[Note: A separate consent order of substitution must be filed by each new attorney wishing to enter an appearance.]

The consent orders granting substitution of attorney are made without waiver of, or prejudice to, the Montana Defendants' primary position that the Court lacks jurisdiction over the claims in the Complaint. Defendants KMMT, LLC, Brent Maggio, and Ryan Bartholomew, who have not been served, have joined and appeared solely and in a limited capacity to challenge this Court's jurisdiction over such parties and reserve all other rights in this matter, including, but not limited to, asserting further argument in the matter and responding to the Complaint, provided such parties are served with process. Orange Theatre Corp. v. Rayherstz Amusement Corp., 139 F.2d 871, 874 (3d Cir. 1944) (a party may appear for the limited purpose of challenging the court's personal jurisdiction over it without consenting to that court's jurisdiction).
